FEAR ATTEMPT TO RESCUE MEN ON TRIAL FOR RIOTS

Federal Soldiers Search the Mountains for Pals of Alleged Killers.

(By the Associated Press.)
WILLIAMSON, W. Va., Jan. 31.—Federal soldiers and a heavy force of deputy sheriffs were hurried into the mountains surrounding Williamson early today at the sound of rifle fire. Careful search failed to reveal the presence of riflemen. There were no casualties, but there were widely circulated rumors that bullets had fallen in one section of the city.

Intense excitement prevailed for a time, but the presence of Colonel Hall and of the Nineteenth United States Infantry served to calm the fear of those who professed to believe that an attempt would be made to rescue the 21 men on trial here for the Matwan shooting.

CHEROKEE INDIANS TO HOLD BIG CELEBRATION

(By the Associated Press.)
TAHLEQUAH, Jan. 31.—Early history of the Cherokee Indians is to be depicted in a pageant given here the first week in June in commemoration of the invention of Sequoyah's alphabet, presented to his people 100 years ago. Cherokees and descendants of missionaries who worked among the Indians before and after the migration to Oklahoma are to take part.

The idea of the pageant has been in process of development several years by Prof. J. W. Scroggins of the extension department of the University of Oklahoma, who came to Oklahoma 42 years ago as a teacher of the Red Men. Final plans were worked out in Oklahoma City at a conference between faculty members of the University, descendants of the old Cherokee tribesmen and members of the state historical society.

It was decided to ask the state legislature, now in session, for funds to defray expenses of the pageant.

Details of the pageant have not been announced.

Working without knowledge of the English language, Sequoyah was an old man when, at the end of 20 years of labor, he gave to his tribesmen an alphabet. In two years the Cherokees were raised from virtual illiteracy to a degree of education, and Sequoyah's achievement has been heralded as one of the greatest forward steps in the history of the American Indian. Hailed as a "crazy Indian," Sequoyah persevered and finally reached his goal by forming a character representing each of the 85 syllables of his language.

Robbers Back Up Truck, Steal Safe From Store

Bold Burglars Enter Building in Heart of City's Business District.

(By the Associated Press.)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 31.—A safe containing $500, three feet wide and four feet high, was stolen last night by robbers from a shoe store in the center of the retail district. The loss was discovered by a policeman when he visited the store at 1:30 this morning. Belief that the robbery was the work of the gang which has become notorious in Tulsa recently, was expressed early today by the police.

Entrance to the store was effected by breaking in a back window and the safe was evidently rolled out a door opened from the inside and placed on a truck in the alley, as was done in the series of Tulsa robberies.

No arrests have been made.

WOMEN'S CLUBS TO HOLD COUNTY LIVESTOCK SHOWS

FREDERICK, Okla., Jan. 31.—Women's clubs of the Federation of Farm Women in Tillman county will hold a county social meeting in connection with the county livestock and poultry show here February 4, according to a decision of the club members. There are seven women's organizations in the county.

"We feel that the time is ripe for a get-together meeting," Mrs. Eva M. Mosteller, county home demonstration agent, declared. "Our meeting will be held at the noon hour and the women will bring their dinners and entertain their families and friends."

Kidnapped Woman is Rescued from Cabin

Was Held Prisoner by Two on Lonely Sheep Ranch.

(By the Associated Press.)
LOS ANGELES, Calif., Jan. 31.—Mrs. Gladys Witherell, who disappeared from her home here last Tuesday, was found early this morning as a prisoner in a small house on a sheep ranch, eight miles from Corona, about 70 miles from Los Angeles, according to telephone messages to the Associated Press.

Mrs. Witherell was unharmed. Two men who gave their names as A. J. and Floyd Carr, cousins, were arrested.

The discovery of Mrs. Witherell and the arrest of the two Carr men were effected by police and deputy sheriffs, who have started for Los Angeles with the woman and the two arrested men.

Officers said the Carrs confessed they had ill feeling toward the woman's father-in-law, A. J. Witherell, because of a transaction involving a boat; and that they kidnapped Mrs. Witherell both to obtain revenge and ransom money, of which, it was said they had demanded $20,000.

Telephone Girl Gave Cue.

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 31.—A telephone operator's quick wittedness led to the discovery of Mrs. Witherell and the Carrs' arrest. The operator received a call from a pay station for the residence of O. S. Witherell, but delayed making the call until the police had been sent to the pay station where they arrested A. J. Carr, just as he was concluding a delayed conversation, which he had promised relatives.

The police said they found chloroform and other articles in his automobile which they believed had been used when drugging the woman from home.

SHAW'S MILLINER OFF FOR EASTERN MARKET

Miss Susie McCormick, in charge of the millinery department of Shaw's Department store, left Saturday evening for the eastern markets to inspect Shaw's spring orders before the goods are shipped.

"We want to make sure that only the best goods as ordered will be shipped us," Mr. Shaw told the News, "and so we have sent Miss McCormick to see that we get the things we want."

Mr. Shaw promised some big surprises for this week in the sale now going on at his store. A page announcement in today's News is ripe with bargains.

STREET RAILWAY COMPANY FAVORS 'HOME RULE' PLAN

(By the Associated Press.)
TULSA, Jan. 31.—"Home rule" of the Tulsa Street Railway company, as proposed by the city attorneys of Oklahoma for all public service corporations operating within city or town limits, will be welcomed by that company, according to Morris McGrath, manager.

"We will be mighty glad to see the recommendations of the city attorneys carried out by the state legislature," Mr. McGrath said. "Such a system will be much more satisfactory to us than the long-range control of the corporation commission. If the city officials controlled us we could go to the city commission and get what we want without waiting months for a corporation commission to give us a hearing. We are perfectly willing to go under the city's control."

The corporation commission issued an order increasing the rates of this company on January 10 from 5 cents to 7 cents cash and six and one-fourth cents ticket fare.

President Refuses to Change Debs Sentence

Turns Down Request of the Department of Justice for Commutation.

(By the Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—President Wilson refused today to commute the ten-year sentence imposed upon Eugene V. Debs for violation of the espionage act.

Commutation of Debs' sentence effective next February 12, was recommended to President Wilson by the Department of Justice. Attorney General Palmer's recommendation was placed before the president this morning.

Debs' many times candidate for the socialist party for president, entered the penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., on June 15, 1919, to serve a ten-year sentence, imposed following conviction for violation of the espionage act.

Debs' conviction was sustained by the United States supreme court, which on motion of the government advanced the case on its docket.

THE LEGISLATURE

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 31.—Governor Robertson allowed the measure providing for extending the time of payment of 1920 ad valorem taxes to become a law without his signature today. The five days in which he is allowed to consider a measure elapsed. In accordance with the new law the first half of the 1920 taxes will be due April 15th and the last half June 29.

Investigate Budget.
OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 31.—Financial matters, with a hint at possible investigation of budget recommendations and deficiency certificates, occupied the lower house of the legislature today.

Two resolutions relating to financial transactions were adopted by the chamber. One provided that the governor be requested to furnish the house with all deficiency certificates issued since the special session of the legislature in 1919, and the other requesting that the governor furnish the house with all budget information.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE TO SOUTHERN SAVAGES

(By the Associated Press.)

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 31.—Women's suffrage movements have reached the Dutch East Indies, the colonies whose history and ancient savagery were chiefly known to credulous Americans through the agency of circus side-shows, wherein the "Wild Man of Borneo" and "The Terrible Dyaks, Ferocious Head Hunting Cannibals," grew many times while the crowds waited for the "big tent" to open.

Head hunting and kindred savage pastimes still continue, to some extent, within the jungles of these Dutch Islands, but, according to the Dutch press, most of the natives are rapidly adopting modern theories.

In Java, the upper class native women, under leadership of Raden Adjeng Kartini, a woman of high birth, are reported to be making rapid strides toward emancipation, although the Mohammedan custom of polygamy still prevails. In all the "Kartini schools," the girls of the upper classes are being taught occidental theories of equality with the men. Dutch correspondents say the progress of the movement is necessarily slow but appears to be certain of ultimate success.

Champion Wrestler Visits Home Here and Plans for Bout

Jack Reese, champion middle-weight wrestler of the southwest and whose headquarters is in this city, was here last Friday and Saturday making plans for a bout to be held here. He has just returned from old Mexico where he has been for the past two months on a wrestling tour.

The American Legion will sponsor the bout here and will meet tomorrow night to discuss plans. Reese is a resident of this place and is well known in sportdom. Reese offered his services to Commander Harrold of the local post. A real scrap is promised when the match comes off. The name of his opponent has not been announced.

EVIL DESIRE, SAYS PASTOR, IS CAUSE OF MOST CRIME

Rev. Taylor Preaches On
"Court Docket and the Ten Commandments."

Taking the criminal docket of the district court as a weather vane of Ada and Pontotoc county's morals, Rev. R. C. Taylor, pastor of the Methodist church, last night preached a masterful sermon on "The Court Docket and the Ten Commandments." Every seat on the lower floor of the church was occupied. The sermon had been widely advertised, and many faces representing other denominations were to be seen in the congregation.

Rev. Taylor analyzed the various crimes mentioned in the docket, classifying each under the commandment it violates.

"You can, to a large extent, judge the morals of a community by the crimes found on the dockets of its courts," he said in keynoting his sermon, "and I must confess that I am ashamed of the condition which this docket indicates exists here in Ada."

The pastor found no violations of the first five commandments on the docket in any of the crimes charged excepting the fifth.

"All have violated that commandment," he said, "who fall in to crime, for they bring dishonor upon those who bore them."

He found that there were 17 who forgot that "Thou shalt not kill." Four of these are charged with murder, others with shooting with intent to kill, and others with assault with a dangerous weapon.

Forty are charged with forgetting that "Thou shalt not steal." These range from ordinary theft to all manner of obtaining goods under false pretense.

A number are charged with violating the seventh commandment, "Thou shalt not commit adultery."

Here Rev. Taylor hesitated a moment.

"But you need to be warned of this great evil," he said, taking courage, "and I see no reason why I should not call a thing by its name in order to point out the danger."

The docket showed, he said, that this commandment had apparently been violated by three forms of adultery. The pastor here charged that adultery, as well as all of the other crimes listed on the docket, could be traced to a violation of the commandment which forbids covetousness. It is by feeding the desire within us, he said, that it grows and grows until at last it drives us into a deeper sin.

Traced to Covetousness.

"Murder, stealing, adultery and most of the crimes that may be committed may be traced to a violation of the commandment which says 'Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's goods, nor his wife, nor his servants,'" he said.

One case on the docket is for bearing false witness, he said. The charge on the docket is for perjury.

It is by tolerating evils that they grow, the pastor pointed out. He deplored the fact that so many are prone to use profane language. It is the fifth which flows from foul mouths that contaminates our boys and girls most, he said.

He wound up the sermon by calling upon all present to strive to create a public sentiment against the things which breed sin.

Another Store Is Robbed by Unknown Parties Last Night

One or more robbers entered the Pure White Grocery about midnight last night, taking several dollars in cash and a large quantity of groceries, and made good their escape in a buggy. Entrance to the building was made through a back window, but no clue as to the guilty parties has been found.

The exact time that the store was entered is not known, but it is believed that it was about midnight as the bakers in the bakery next door were down at an early hour and did not hear any disturbance. A general bill of goods which amounts to about $100 was taken as some of most of the articles in the store are missing. A bucket of lard, which had been dropped near the window, was found where it had fallen and other goods which had been stacked were in a disorderly manner.

The tracks were traced from the window to the alley where it was found that the goods had been placed in a buggy. One noticeable thing about the robbery was that no soap or other washing material was touched.

Lady Victor Paget, better known as Olive May through her fame years ago as a Gaiety girl, has been granted a divorce from Lord Victor Paget of England on the grounds of desertion and misconduct. Hurled into Fire Pit, Firemen Burn to Death

Trapped and Blinded, Three
Die Under Crumbling
Brick Wall.

(By the Associated Press.)

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 31.—Three firemen were killed and 18 seriously injured when a wall of the building at Eighty-eighth and Matheson street collapsed during a fire early today. Two of the injured are expected to die. The property damage was estimated at $150,000.

Trapped on the roof and blinded by smoke when flames suddenly severed the front wall, a company of firemen were hurled into a fire pit. Their comrades in the street were showered with blazing beams and debris, but they rushed into the ruins and brought out the living and the dead.

Court Reverses Case of Convicted Socialists

Victor Berger and Four Others Freed by the Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Conviction of Victor L. Berger, Milwaukee socialist publisher, on a charge of violating the wartime espionage act, was reversed today by the supreme court on the ground that Federal Judge Landis should not have presided at the trial after his eligibility had been attacked in an affidavit filed by Berger and charging prejudice.

Within a few minutes after the court decision had been announced, President Wilson refused to commute the ten year sentence imposed on Eugene V. Debs, many times socialist candidate for president for violating the same law.

The court divided 6 to 3 in Berger's case, Justice Day, Pitney and McReynolds dissenting.

No Apologies.
MILWAUKEE, Jan. 3.—"The conspiracy has failed. I have nothing to retract from anything I have written or said, about the war, or about those who pushed us into this war," declared Victor L. Berger, when told today of the reversal by the United States supreme court of his sentence.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Conviction of Victor L. Berger and four other members of the socialist party for violation of the espionage act was reversed today by the supreme court on the ground that Judge Landis should not have heard the suit after his eligibility had been attacked.

Those convicted with Berger in the federal court at Chicago were Adolf Germer, national secretary of the party; William Kruse, editor of the Young Socialists Magazine; J. Louis Engdahl, and Erwin St. John Tucker.

Berger and the other four men were convicted under the section prohibiting attempts to cause insubordination and disloyalty in the naval and military forces, and sentences ranging from ten to twenty years imprisonment were imposed.

The appeal was brought to the supreme court on the ground that Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, who presided at the trial, had shown "personal bias and prejudice against the defendants because of their nationality."

SECOND MURDER TRIAL OPENS IN DISTRICT COURT

Will Rose To Claim Self Defense in Indian Killings.

Willie Rose, Pontotoc county farmer, was placed on trial this morning in district court on a murder charge for participation in the killing of Nordon McLish, full-blood Chickasaw, and William Isaac, half-breed Indian, on Christmas eve, 1919.

The morning was spent in selecting the jury.

District court convened at 9 o'clock this morning to take up the last week's work of the term. Everyone connected with the court seems to have returned from their Sunday "holiday" refreshed and rested from the arduous labors of the past week and ready for the strenuous duties of this week's session.

The court made remarkable speed last week in the trial of the criminal docket. It tried one assault to kill case, two statutory offense cases, a murder case and a larceny case. It is said by those who should know about such matters that this is two weeks' average work. It costs $150 a day to run the court, and this week of time saved indicates that the prompt action of the past week netted the county a saving of $900.

Murder Case Up

Several new faces are to be seen among those chosen for jury service. A few of the men who served as jurors last week were excused from further service Saturday, and the new men were selected to take their places. Some of the new men chosen to sit in the first case called for trial today, the murder case in which John Rose, Ira Rose and Willie Rose are charged with the killing of Nordon McLish.

McLish, a full blood Chickasaw Indian, was shot and killed on a road near the Rose home, Christmas eve night, 1919. William Isaac, a half breed Indian and friend of McLish, was injured in the shooting affray but died two months ago. It is understood, without making a legal statement with reference to the guilt or innocence of the three Roses who had been arrested Christmas day following the shooting and charged with murder.

To Be Tried Separately

The defendants were granted a severance in court this morning, and instead of the three men being tried in one case, three cases will be tried separately on the charge. Willie Rose is defendant in the first case, and his trial is now in progress. Most of the morning was taken up in selecting a jury to try the case, and it is probable that it will not go to the jury before Tuesday morning.

Rose is represented by Attorneys King and Crawford and the state's side is being handled by County Attorney Wayne Washington and H. F. Mathis, his assistant.

Plead Self Defense

Self-defense will be the plea of the defendant, who claims that the shooting was started by William Isaac, who was with McLish, and who assisted him in an attack on the Rose family at their home.

The state will undertake to show that the shooting was done by the Roses, while McLish, Isaac and other persons were using the highway in peace.

The witnesses in the case live in the neighborhood of the Blue Mound school house, 15 miles south of Ada near which the shooting occurred, except Sheriff Duncan and Dr. V. F. Sullivan.

Sheriff Duncan, the first witness for the state, this afternoon, told of going to the Rose home about sunrise Christmas morning in company with the county attorney. McLish was dead when he arrived, having been shot through the body with a Winchester rifle, and also shot with a shotgun. Isaac was also there, suffering from wounds which had been inflicted by number six shot from a shotgun. After an investigation, the sheriff arrested John Rose and his two sons, Ira and Willie, and placed them in jail to await a preliminary trial on a charge of murder. They put up bond and were released from jail after the preliminary trial and have been at large since.

Dr. Sullivan told of examining McLish about six o'clock Christmas morning. Apparently the man had been dead about one hour at that time. The doctor was of the opinion that the large wound made by the Winchester bullet which passed entirely through the body penetrating vital parts of the intestines had been the cause of his death.

The doctor said that Isaac had been horribly shot up, and that over two hundred small shot had entered his body. He examined Isaac the day before he died, about the middle of last November, and thought that the cause of his death was hemorrhages from an abscess of the lungs, and a tubercular infection which might or might not have been caused by the gunshot wounds.

TAFT TO THE BITTER-ENDERS.

Sound but bitter advice is given by former President Taft to those irreconcilables in his own party who fought the League of Nations. He tells Borah and the others who seek a disarmament program by agreement with England and Japan they cannot have it unless they are willing to bind the United States to do what it asks the other nations to do. And when he says that, he hurls in their faces the very thing they alleged as their reason for opposing the league.

Mr. Taft, like the advocates of the league, sees no harm in such a contractual relation. It is no more or no less a surrender of sovereignty than this or any other country makes when it signs a treaty with any other sovereign power. It is identically what the United States would do and will do when it joins with 49 other nations of the world in the covenant of the League of Nations. The objection during the league debate was piffling and trifling and those who made it know it now, if they did not then.

Says Mr. Taft:
"Satisfactory signs are accumulating that those conditions which advocates of a League of Nations urged as reasons for uniting with other nations by agreement to secure peace are influencing even the most strenuous opponents of the league to find and propose some kind of an equivalent." But when it comes to disarmament, says Mr. Taft, or any other international enterprise we cannot ask other nations to do what we are unwilling to do ourselves.

And so it comes about again—this hypocrisy of the enemies of the league. These opponents of the covenant were not so dull at the time not to see the error of their argument. From myriad sources came the evidence to show the shifting sands on which they stood.

Eating crow is not a palatable pastime and yet for world peace, all attempts to lower the enormous cost of war machinery, all friendly intercourse and engagements with the nations of the world, they must repudiate their past conduct and accept the principles as laid down by Woodrow Wilson, not because he laid them down but because they are eternally true. Acceptance of the league would not only have spared the world reputation of the United States but prevented the most hypocritical and vicious political conspiracy that this country has known.

PROPHETS AND POWDER

Anyone who hasn't been strictly excluded from feminine companionship comes to the conclusion sooner or later that women are the same the world over, and that she hasn't changed a great deal from the time of Eve to the passing of the eighteenth amendment.

Man hasn't changed much, either. He's still fool enough, as a rule, to think he knows some thing about the other sex, and he still struts around and tells himself that he is the boss.

John Knox, that staid and revered Presbyterian of a bygone age, was such a man. His "Blasts of the Trumpet Against the Monstrous Regiment of Women" was directed at Mary, Queen of Scots, and other beautiful women of the day. Mr. Knox was peeved because they were so doggone easy to look at, or at least that is about what a modern peruser of his "Blasts" will gather.

The same sort of ire rouses Overseer Voliva of Zion, Ill., the successor of Dowie, the prophet. Women who go to the Zion tabernacle and powder their noses are sacrilegious, Voliva says. He has just issued a warning that he'll lecture any powdered ladies in the congregation and that he'll slap 'em too.

Now, Mr. Voliva, be reasonable. We say it for your own protection. You may get away with the lecture, but Mr. Voliva, a slapped woman, powder or no powder, is something to look out for.

Congressmen seem in considerable doubt whether the country will stand for any more of them.

Republican aspirants for postoffice jobs are said to average 10 for each office, which shows what an eight-year fast will do.

Perhaps Mr. Harding needs a rest because of an acute attack of mental indigestion. Those "best minds" provided a heavy diet.

Men should be trained for marriage, says a college professor. In the absence of that they get their training in marriage.

Doubtless that new French gun that will shoot about 200 miles is hoped to prove to the Germans as unanswerable argument for peace.

With all the boasted efficiency in the United States, there is too much waiting on the other fellow to make the first move.

SPANISH SINGER ARRIVES HERE TO DEMONSTRATE RECOVERY OF HER VOICE

Mme. Lucrezia Bori, photographed on the S. S. Imperator.

Madame Lucrezia Bori, a famous opera singer of five years ago, has just returned to America after a hard five-year fight to regain her voice. During her stay abroad she submitted to two operations in Milan, Italy. It is announced that she is to sing "Mimi" in "La Boheme" at the Metropolitan Opera House, where she sang before her voice failed her.

Last year we would have been proud of such a distinction and like as not we may be so next year, but for this year we will just have to make the best of it, for that is all there is to it.

Bryan County Democrat: We hope the legislature will not "go wild" and cut down the appropriations that have been suggested by Governor Robertson. The state schools must not be allowed to suffer. Oklahoma is too rich, and education is too badly needed to have them slashed by the cruel knife of economy, which really is not economy, at all. Give the schools of this state full and free support that they may go ahead with the great work for which they were established.

The Pontotoc county delegation of Farmers' union people attended a call session of the state meeting at the Lee Huchins hotel in Oklahoma City Tuesday, the 25th inst. and have returned with renewed hopes, and with a more optimistic feeling with reference to our future welfare as farmers.

Our county was fairly represented, and we feel that we are well paid for the trip.

After a short morning session we went en masse to the capitol, and one might have been reminded of the "olden days" and of Coxe's army — only we were not requested "to keep off the grass." There we separated into county delegations. Each delegation seeking a consultation with the "solons" of their respective counties. It was the result of this consultation that made us feel that we were almost boys again.

Among the several bills being urged for passage by the F. E. C. U. by this legislature we may mention the Warehouse bill which provides that two million dollars be appropriated for the purpose of being loaned to farmers for defraying 50 percent of the cost of building the necessary warehouses for properly housing their products. This loan to be made

The Home Economics club, assisted by Mr. Davis, Mr. Norris, John Zimmerman, Raymond Caskey and Clifford Parker, will give a play in the normal auditorium Tuesday evening, February 22. The proceeds will be used towards the support of the French girl which has been adopted by the club and for the benefit of the Home Economics department.

A special chapel was called yesterday morning for the purpose of bringing before the student body the sufferings of the near East people. Miss Knight read a letter from Supt. R. H. COUNTY FARM AGENT MAKES GOOD REPORT

Around the Corner.

Around the corner I have a friend. In this great city that has no end. Yet days go by and weeks rush on. And before I know it a year is gone. And I never see my old friend's face. For life is a swift and terrible race. He knows I like him just as well. As in the days when I rang his bell. And he rang mine. We were young and then. And now we are busy, tired men—Tired with playing a foolish game; Tired with trying to make a name. "Tomorrow," I say, "I will call on Jim. Just to show that I'm thinking of him." But tomorrow comes—and tomorrow goes. And the distance between us grows and grows. Around the corner!—Yet miles away. "Here's a telegram, sir," "Jim died today!" And that's what we get—and deserve in the end—Around the corner, a vanished friend.

—Charles Hanson Towne.

A Wedding Surprise.

Married: At Checotah, January 10, 1921, Mr. Dorsey N. Myers, of Ada, and Miss Dade Duvall, of Wagoner. The ceremony was performed at the parsonage of the M. E. church South by the resident minister. At home at Ada after blank date.

The above is the ordinary and common custom of announcing a wedding but not so with this couple. Instead of conforming to the regular order these young people decided on an entirely different line of action. Miss Duvall, the very worthy home demonstration agent left here before Christmas to spend her holiday vacation at the old home at Marion, Ky. In due season she returned to resume her work and no one suspected that she was other than Miss Duvall, until it was brought out at a party given by Miss Yetta Hatfield last Friday evening, which was arranged for that very purpose. After an evening spent in parlor games the last one being a contest in History and Authors, the final question being framed in language like this:

With the world in Struggle and Strife,
Who has courage enough to take unto himself a wife?

Then the hostess gave the whole thing away.

After the announcement came the refreshments which were in the form of an honest-to-goodness wedding cake with the ring, the wishbone and all the customary trimmings. Special favors were placed at each plate, each a miniature wedding cake.

The happy couple will be at home at their farm home near Ada after July first. Mrs. Myers will finish her term of office here as home demonstration agent which expires at that time.—Checotah Times.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder Bothers You.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

Although Mr. Broadhurst wrote his play years before the national dry law became effective, its amusing situations strike with equal force now when the United States has become known as "The Great American Desert." It not only exposes the tricks of the lake liquor dealers, but it pokes fun at those individuals who "sneak" when they have been bested in an attempt to beat the law. One of the funniest characters in the production is an old farmer who howls that the "barrel" of good liquor he has bought consists of one quart of "stuff" in a floating container surrounded by forty gallons of pure water!

In connection with the picture program, Raynor Len's Right Now company will present "I Can't Help It." This is said to be a first class show in every respect. Clean comedy with singers and dancers that please. Mr. Lehr is the comedian of the Blackface variety.

SAYS RAILROADS MUST CUT COSTS OR GO BANKRUPT

Want War Restrictions Off So As To Cut Wages.

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—Bankruptcy threatens the railroads of the United States unless they are assured immediate means for a reduction in operating expenses, the railroad labor board was told today by the association of railroad executives.

General Atterbury, chairman of the labor committee of the roads organization, made the prediction.

The railroad executives assured the federal officials that if there was immediate abrogation of the war time national agreements, involving working rules and conditions, they would not seek a reduction in basic wages for at least three months after the order becomes effective, saying the interval would be used to test out the efficacy of economies which might be instituted free from the limitations of present agreements.

Ultimately, however, it was stated, there would be a need for reduction of basic wages if the cost of operation is to be cut to a point where rates may be reduced.

As a measure of immediate relief, the roads asked the board to abrogate at once the agreement fixing the basic rate of unskilled labor from 39 to 48 1-2 cents an hour. They argued that this was a higher rate than was being paid in other industries and that it operated to the disadvantage of other employers, particularly farmers.

The roads propose that rules and working conditions, in effect December 31, 1917, be re-established. Many roads are not now earning and with present operating costs and traffic, have no prospect of earning their bare operating expenses, General Atterbury declared. This leaves them without any net return and unable to meet their fixed charges. He said that the emergency might be met either by an advance in freight and passenger rates or a reduction in operating expenses.

"With declining prices and wages in industry and agriculture," he added, "the country demands that the solvency of the railroads must be assured by a reduction in operating expenses, and not by a further advance in rate."

He said that as railroad wages were the last to go up, so they should be the last to come down.

General Atterbury quoted President Wilson and the pronouncement of his board itself, in an endeavor to show the wartime agreements were not intended to live beyond the war.

Church News

First Baptist Church.

We began the day yesterday by having a larger Sunday school than we expected; there being three hundred ninety-one present. This was splendid considering the fact of the cold weather.

Rev. Mr. Wilson, associate state director of Syrian and Armenian relief, was present at the Sunday school hour and took an offering for that worthy cause and secured $103.22 in cash and $10.25 in pledges, making a total of $240.47. A large congregation greeted the pastor at the morning hour of worship when he brought a message on the subject, "Make the tree good." At the close of this service there were three additions by letter.

The Juniors had present twenty-four. Mrs. Webster is in charge of this work and is doing a magnificent work. It is composed of boys and girls from nine to twelve years of age.

The Intermediate B. Y. P. U. had seventy-eight present. This organization is composed of boys and girls between the ages of twelve and sixteen. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bell are in charge. They are to have a social next Saturday evening, at the church.

The Senior B. Y. P. U. had thirty-three present. This organization was rendered. This organization is certainly holding up the hands of the pastor. At the close of their meetings they form into groups and pray for the services. They have set themselves to the work of leading unsaved ones to Christ and are doing personal work in the congregation. They have already brought some eight or ten to the Lord this month.

At the evening service, the building was taxed to capacity chairs being placed in the aisles to seat the people. The pastor preached on the subject, "The wail of a broken heart." At the close of the service there were five professions and four of them united with the church, making a total of seven additions during the day. The ordinance of baptism will be administered at the close of prayer meeting Wednesday evening to nine.

POOR SCHOOLS CAUSE OF PEOPLE LEAVING FARMS

(By the Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 31.—Poor rural schools are responsible for a large part of the huge national drift of farm people to the cities and the first step in making effective a "back to the land" movement is to give country teachers extra pay according to the inconveniences and hardships they undergo in their work. This is the gist of a report made to the American Federation of Teachers by Field Secretary Josephine Colby here today.

"One of the main reasons for the desertion of farms by young and forward looking married couples is that country schools cannot compare, under existing conditions, with city schools in giving children opportunity for development," she said. "A survey of the situation shows that even now when unemployment and wage cuts are more prevalent in the cities there has been no corresponding slump in the shift of the rural population to the urban centers. Country and small town schools continue to grow worse because their trained teachers go to the larger cities where higher pay prevails and because the teachers they secure are far more poorly prepared than ever before."

"Since the teacher shortage became so acute the large cities have surpassed the rural districts in raising salaries with the result that they have drawn practically all the competent teachers away from the 'little red school house.' The average salary of teachers in one-room rural schools is less than $600 per year. Tennessee, for instance, has an average of $258 per teacher yearly and 13 states rank below that. Pennsylvania reports a lack of 78 per cent in rural and elementary teachers. This means that country children suffer in comparison with city children."

"This wrong will not be righted until country districts offer extra compensation for the inconveniences their teachers must undergo. What teacher will remain in the rural districts 'boarding around,' walking to school in country mud, enduring rigorous weather when she can get better pay, higher cultural environment and greater comfort in a city?"

or movement and was celebrated by a birthday party at the First Presbyterian Christian Endeavor.

Miss Bernice Roach was leader of the meeting and had prepared a special program consisting of music and readings.

A brief history of the movement was given by the leader and several members. Other members told what Christian Endeavor has accomplished in the last forty years and the future possibility of the society.

The latter part of the program was given over to the missionary committee, who presented the first four chapters of Frank Higgins' book, "The Trail Blazer."

A special feature of the program was a large, snow white birthday cake with forty candles on it, and as the members took part on the program they came forward and lighted a candle. At the close of the service the cake was cut and passed to the some fifty young people present.

The following is a list of the new members of the O. U. C. T. which are enrolled as charter members of the Ada organization: Paul H. Payne, James E. Russell, Geo. W. Young, Thos. O.
